Research Analysis

HB 2881 modifies the eligibility requirements for Drug Court by allowing for a review to determine if an offender is eligible for drug court at any time prior to disposition of the case and sentencing of the offender. The measure allows a person subject to sentencing by the court without a plea agreement in place. The measure provides that if there is no plea agreement, that the offender will be subject to a penalty to be determined by the court in the event of a successful completion of the drug court program, and in the event of a failure to complete the program. Any penalty shall emphasize reparation to the victim, community and state.
