

BILL SUMMARY
2nd Session of the 56th Legislature

Bill No.:	HB 3070
Version:	INT
Request Number:	8380
Author:	Rep. Worthen
Date:	2/26/2018
Impact:	Establishes a misdemeanor and related fine

Research Analysis

HB 3070, as introduced, modifies penalties for use of false or altered identification or false declaration of ownership relating to the Oklahoma Pawnshop Act. If property transferred to a pawnbroker is valued less than $1,000, the person would be guilty of a misdemeanor, punished by a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment in county jail not to exceed 6 months, or both.

Fiscal Analysis

HB 3070 establishes a misdemeanor and related fine (not more than $500) and/or up to 6 months in county jail for property valued less than $1,000 (with the exception of firearms). The actual fiscal impact is contingent upon how many individuals are charged with the crime and the amount of the fine they are obligated to pay.
