Research Analysis

HB 3082 would allow the owner of a vehicle to register the vehicle for a period of 1 year or 2 years. The registration fee for biennial registration and any related administrative fees is to be equal to the sum of all annual registration fees and related administrative fees that would have otherwise been applicable. The measure provides that a convenience fee of $25 be charged to those wishing to register for a 2 year period. The measure provides an apportionment of the convenience fee with $8.50 to the credit of the State Transportation Fund, $8.50 to the credit of the Emergency and Transportation Revolving Fund, $5 to the credit of the General Revenue Fund, $2 to be retained by the motor license agent, and $1 to the credit of the Oklahoma Tax Commission Fund.
