Research Analysis

The amendment changes the dates on pages two and three from July 1, 2018 to December 1, 2018. Also on page two, the amendment restores the phrase “in equal amounts” and adds that certain funds will be, in equal amounts to the seventy-seven counties to be held by the statewide board, distributed to the circuit engineering districts. The amendment also adds the words “under which the respective county is located” after the date on page two, line 21.

The amendment also adds the words “or the various circuit engineering districts” on page three, line 18 after the word board. Finally, the amendment removes the emergency clause, making the measure effective on November 1, 2018.
