Research Analysis

SB 1096 creates an investigations unit within CLEET under the control of the executive director. The unit is to investigate violations of state statute or administrative rule relating to the Bail Enforcement and Licensing Act and the Oklahoma Security Guard and Private Investigator Act. The measure provides that peace officers with full-time certification who worked during a calendar year only as a reserve officer are required to complete only the training requirements for reserve certification. The measure allows any municipality to make application to conduct a basic law enforcement academy. The measure provides that materials and records provided by CLEET to any municipality, county or Collegiate Officer Program conducting a basic enforcement training remain the property of CLEET.
