Research Analysis

The measure, as related to court records, would require the court to include the month and year of the defendant's birth date on the copy of the judgment. Current law requires only the year of the defendant's birth to be included.

Prepared By: Kyle Meade

Fiscal Analysis

SB 1346, which requires clerks to include a notation of the month and year of the birth date of the defendant on the judgement, has no fiscal or revenue considerations for the state.

Prepared By: Kristina King

Other Considerations

None.
