Research Analysis

SB 774 deletes the fee of $50 associated with an application to establish or operate a residential care home and authorizes the State Board of Health to adopt rules setting a fee not to exceed $10 per bed or $500. The bill also requires a home proposing new construction or a major renovation submit construction plans in advance to the State Department of Health for review. The department is authorized to assess a fee for the review in an amount not to exceed 0.15% or $25,000, whichever is least, of the total construction cost.
