Research Analysis

The engrossed measure stipulates that a school district cannot place any other conditions or requirements upon an employee to initiate or terminate any payroll deduction to a professional organization except for a written request as provided for by law. Any school district policy that does so is considered null and void. If a district fails to terminate a payroll deduction then the district must immediately reimburse the employee the amount of payroll deductions made by the district after the employee's requests, and the amount due will be doubled every 30 days until paid in full.
