Research Analysis

The PCS for HB 1061 directs DHS to provide the Office of Child Abuse Prevention at the State Health Department the names of individuals who have had their parental rights terminated and the conditions that led up to that action. The Office is directed to include in its annual report the number of individuals with terminated parental rights that have had other children. Finally, the bill authorizes the Office to, when appropriate and if funds are available, provide an assessment of the family's needs and offer services.
