Research Analysis

The committee substitute to HB1921 creates a statewide virtual presence initiative with the goal of becoming a leader in virtual presence as the technology matures. The measure directs the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education to lead an effort in conjunction with OneNet, the State Board of Career and Technology Education, State Department of Education, Oklahoma Department of Libraries, Oklahoma Department of Commerce and the Office of Management and Enterprise Services to create a research and development proposal to make Oklahoma a leader in telepresence, and lists requirements for the proposal.
