Research Analysis

The Conference Committee Substitute to HB 1995 clarifies the requirement that a county sheriff keep audio and video recordings from equipment attached to an officer. The measure requires that the sheriff's office to keep for a minimum of 180 days from the date of incident any audio or video recordings. Video recordings that depict an officer-involved shooting, use of lethal force, incidents that result in medical treatment, incidents identified in a written application seeking preservation of the recording, and preservation requested by the district attorney must be for a minimum of 1 year. Any written reports and records related to the audio or video recordings must be kept for a minimum of seven years.
