Research Analysis

SB 1001 preempts local governments from regulating, taxing, or restricting the sale or use of an “auxiliary container,” such as plastic bags, plastic water bottles, or disposable food containers.

Prepared By: Tricia Hines

Fiscal Analysis

The measure, as written pertains to the restricting, regulating or prohibition of the use or sale of certain auxiliary containers and has $0 fiscal impact anticipated to the State.

Prepared By: Jenny Mobley

Other Considerations

If a political subdivision is currently regulating auxiliary containers with a fee or tax, which is utilized as a revenue stream, the measure may have an influence. Currently, the state is unaware of any political subdivision that would be impacted.
