Research Analysis

SB 233 requires a person who files an action with the courts to pay at the time of filing.

Prepared By: Brad Wolgamott

Fiscal Analysis

SB 233, which requires court costs to be paid upon filing when the State of Oklahoma or any of its departments or agencies is a party, upon review and with consultation by the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) is determined to have a possible revenue increase for the district courts, as a small amount of the parties are not currently paying at the time of filing. This increase is anticipated to be minimal.
