Bill Analysis

SB 1284 removes the duty to superintend the recovery of all debts to the state as well as the duty to certify every requisition made by a state agency from the Division of Central Accounting and Reporting. The measure also authorizes each state agency to disburse funds from a clearing account provided the funds are used in the reissuance of returned electronic funds transfer payments, remittance of sales tax to the Oklahoma Tax Commission, or the facilitation of federal wires pursuant to procedures set forth by the Office of Management and Enterprise Services.
