Bill Analysis

SB 1721 creates the Unborn Person Equality Act. The measure directs the laws of the state to be interpreted and construed in a manner that acknowledges an unborn person at every stage of development. The measure clarifies that its provisions shall not be interpreted as creating a cause of action against a woman for indirectly harming her unborn child by failing to properly care for herself or by failing to follow any particular program of prenatal care, in vitro fertilization, or to abortions performed out-of-state.
