Bill Analysis

SB 1724 modifies language relating to school employee payroll deductions. The measure directs that deductions cannot be authorized for longer than 1 year and states that authorization for dues and political contributions are to be made on a form prescribed by the Secretary of Education containing a certain statement about First Amendment rights. The measure requires a school district to confirm an employee's authorization by email and states that any authorization agreed to before June 27, 2018, or that does not comply with these provisions shall be invalid and void as of July 1, 2020.
