Bill Analysis

SB 1818 specifies that a “compensable injury” in the Administrative Workers’ Compensation Act must not be the result of an “intentional act,” as defined in the measure. Language related to intentional torts is struck and simply referred to as an intentional act. The measure also specifies how and who shall pay for compensation related to cumulative trauma. “Idiopathic” is defined in the Act as an injury or condition where neither the cause or the resulting injury bears any special relation to the work or to the conditions arising out of employment.
