Bill Analysis

SB 1840 requires each state agency or commission applying for a grant provided by any organization in excess of $50,000.00 to obtain written permission from the Cabinet Secretary with relevant jurisdiction prior to the application. Any grant in excess of $100,000.00 will require the state agency or commission to obtain permission from the Cabinet Secretary and the Secretary of Budget. The provisions of the measure shall not apply to institutions of higher education, local school districts, and emergency grant funds from the federal government where the time from application to distribution of funds is typically less than 10 days.
