Bill Analysis

SB 224 authorizes the Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training (CLEET) to require public employees with access to certain records prescribed in the measure to submit to a criminal history search and fingerprint collection conducted by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation. CLEET will receive the results of the criminal history search. The measure also authorizes CLEET to deposit fee collections for the use of its personnel for training purposes into the C.L.E.E.T. Peace Officer Revolving Fund.
