Bill Analysis

SB 370 modifies eligibility to file a motion for expungement. The measure clarifies that persons convicted of a violent crime listed in Section 13.1 of Title 21 who obtain an expungement without a full pardon will not have their citizenship rights restored as it relates to voting and bearing arms. The measure also authorizes persons applying for expungement to obtain the written consent of the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, the arresting agency, and the District Attorney.
