Bill Analysis

SB 609 requires municipal law enforcement be responsible for the transportation of a person initially contacted within the boundaries of the municipality and county law enforcement to be responsible for the transportation of a person initially contacted within the county, but outside of a municipality. Law enforcement agencies transporting a person within a twenty mile radius of their office will be compensated according to the State Travel Reimbursement Act and at a rate negotiated with the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services beyond a twenty mile radius.
