6 AS INTRODUCED

7 An Act relating to civil procedure; establishing 8 requirements for standing to maintain a cause of 9 action; prohibiting cause of action for general
10 public grievance; placing burden to show standing on 11 person asserting cause of action; providing for 12 codification; and declaring an emergency.

13 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

14 SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
15 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 2001.1 of Title 12, unless there 16 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

17 A. No person asserting a cause of action in a court of this 18 state shall have standing to maintain a cause of action unless he or 19 she can demonstrate:

20 1. A concrete and particularized injury-in-fact that is not 21 conjectural or hypothetical in nature;

22 2. The injury is fairly traceable to the actions that are the 23 subject of the suit; and

24 3. The injury will be redressed by a favorable decision of the 25 court.

1 B. No person may assert a cause of action in a court of this 2 state based on a general grievance of the public at large or to 3 vindicate the rights of other individuals, but rather must 4 demonstrate an injury that is personal to the party asserting the 5 cause of action.

6 C. The person invoking the jurisdiction of a court over a cause 7 of action shall carry the burden to establish proper standing to 8 maintain such cause of action and shall maintain such standing 9 throughout the proceedings of the court.

10 SECTION 2. It being immediately necessary for the preservation 11 of the public peace, health or safety, an emergency is hereby 12 declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and 13 be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
