2 The _____ has recently investigated a complaint
3 (LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY)
4 about your behavior towards the above-named individual.
5 The behavior you have engaged in could be interpreted as "stalking"
6 as provided for in Section 1173 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma
7 Statutes. Stalking can be described as intentionally engaging in a 8 course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a

22 not require jurisdiction or venue of the criminal offense if either 23 the plaintiff or defendant resides in the county. If a petition has 24 been filed in an action for divorce or separate maintenance and

1 either party to the action files a petition for a protective order 2 in the same county where the action for divorce or separate 3 maintenance is filed, the petition for the protective order may be 4 heard by the court hearing the divorce or separate maintenance 5 action if:

6           a.    there is no established protective order docket in 7                such court, or

8           b.    the court finds that, in the interest of judicial 9                economy, both actions may be heard together; provided, 10               however, the petition for a protective order, 11               including, but not limited to, a petition in which 12               children are named as petitioners, shall remain a 13               separate action and a separate order shall be entered 14               in the protective order action. Protective orders may 15               be dismissed in favor of restraining orders in the 16               divorce or separate maintenance action if the court 17               specifically finds, upon hearing, that such dismissal 18               is in the best interests of the parties and does not 19               compromise the safety of any petitioner.

20           If the defendant is a minor child, the petition shall be filed 21 with the court having jurisdiction over juvenile matters.

22           2.   When the abuse occurs when the court is not open for 23 business, such person may request an emergency temporary order of 24 protection as authorized by Section 40.3 of this title.

1 B. The petition forms shall be provided by the clerk of the 2 court. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall develop a 3 standard form for the petition.

4 C. 1. Except as otherwise provided by this section, no filing 5 fee, service of process fee, attorney fees or any other fee or costs 6 shall be charged the plaintiff or victim at any time for filing a 7 petition for a protective order whether a protective order is 8 granted or not granted. The court may assess court costs, service 9 of process fees, attorney fees, other fees and filing fees against 10 the defendant at the hearing on the petition, if a protective order 11 is granted against the defendant; provided, the court shall have 12 authority to waive the costs and fees if the court finds that the 13 party does not have the ability to pay the costs and fees.

14 2. If the court makes specific findings that a petition for a 15 protective order has been filed frivolously and no victim exists, 16 the court may assess attorney fees and court costs against the 17 plaintiff.

18 D. The person seeking relief shall prepare the petition or, at 19 the request of the plaintiff, the court clerk or the victim-witness 20 coordinator, victim support person, and court case manager shall 21 prepare or assist the plaintiff in preparing the petition.

22 E. The person seeking a protective order may further request 23 the exclusive care, possession, or control of any animal owned, 24 possessed, leased, kept, or held by either the petitioner, defendant

1 or minor child residing in the residence of the petitioner or 2 defendant. The court may order the defendant to make no contact 3 with the animal and forbid the defendant from taking, transferring, 4 encumbering, concealing, molesting, attacking, striking,
5 threatening, harming, or otherwise disposing of the animal.

6 F. A court may not require the victim to seek legal sanctions 7 against the defendant including, but not limited to, divorce,
8 separation, paternity or criminal proceedings prior to hearing a 9 petition for protective order.

10 G. A victim of rape, forcible sodomy, a sex offense, 11 kidnapping, assault and battery with a deadly weapon or member of 12 the immediate family of a victim of first-degree murder, as such 13 terms are defined in Section 40 of this title, may petition for an 14 emergency temporary order or emergency ex parte order regardless of 15 any relationship or scenario pursuant to the provisions of this 16 section. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall modify the 17 petition forms as necessary to effectuate the provisions of this 18 subsection.

19 SECTION 7. AMENDATORY 22 O.S. 2021, Section 60.4, is 20 amended to read as follows:

21 Section 60.4 A. 1. A copy of a petition for a protective 22 order, any notice of hearing and a copy of any emergency temporary 23 order or emergency ex parte order issued by the court shall be 24 served upon the defendant in the same manner as a bench warrant. In

1 addition, if the service is to be in another county, the court clerk 2 may issue service to the sheriff by facsimile or other electronic 3 transmission for service by the sheriff and receive the return of 4 service from the sheriff in the same manner. Any fee for service of 5 a petition for protective order, notice of hearing, and emergency ex 6 parte order shall only be charged pursuant to subsection C of 7 Section 60.2 of this title and, if charged, shall be the same as the 8 sheriff's service fee plus mileage expenses.

9 2. Emergency temporary orders, emergency ex parte orders and 10 notice of hearings shall be given priority for service and can be 11 served twenty-four (24) hours a day when the location of the 12 defendant is known. When service cannot be made upon the defendant 13 by the sheriff, the sheriff may contact another law enforcement 14 officer or a private investigator or private process server to serve 15 the defendant.

16 3. An emergency temporary order, emergency ex parte order, a 17 petition for protective order, and a notice of hearing shall have 18 statewide validity and may be transferred to any law enforcement 19 jurisdiction to effect service upon the defendant. The sheriff may 20 transmit the document by electronic means.

21 4. The return of service shall be submitted to the sheriff's 22 office or court clerk in the court where the petition, notice of 23 hearing or order was issued.

1        5. When the defendant is a minor child who is ordered removed 2 from the residence of the victim, in addition to those documents
3 served upon the defendant, a copy of the petition, notice of hearing 4 and a copy of any temporary order or ex parte order issued by the 5 court shall be delivered with the child to the caretaker of the 6 place where such child is taken pursuant to Section 2-2-101 of Title 7 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes.

8        B. 1. Within fourteen (14) days of the filing of the petition 9 for a protective order, the court shall schedule a full hearing on 10 the petition, if the court finds sufficient grounds within the scope 11 of the Protection from Domestic Abuse Act stated in the petition to 12 hold such a hearing, regardless of whether an emergency temporary 13 order or ex parte order has been previously issued, requested or 14 denied. Provided, however, when the defendant is a minor child who 15 has been removed from the residence pursuant to Section 2-2-101 of 16 Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes, the court shall schedule a full 17 hearing on the petition within seventy-two (72) hours, regardless of 18 whether an emergency temporary order or ex parte order has been 19 previously issued, requested or denied.

20        2. The court may schedule a full hearing on the petition for a 21 protective order within seventy-two (72) hours when the court issues 22 an emergency temporary order or ex parte order suspending child 23 visitation rights due to physical violence or threat of abuse.
24

1        3. If service has not been made on the defendant at the time of 2 the hearing, the court shall, at the request of the petitioner, 3 issue a new emergency order reflecting a new hearing date and direct 4 service to issue.

5        4. A petition for a protective order shall, upon the request of 6 the petitioner, renew every fourteen (14) days with a new hearing
7 date assigned until the defendant is served. A petition for a 8 protective order shall not expire unless the petitioner fails to 9 appear at the hearing or fails to request a new order. A petitioner 10 may move to dismiss the petition and emergency or final order at any 11 time; however, a protective order must be dismissed by court order.

12        5. Failure to serve the defendant shall not be grounds for 13 dismissal of a petition or an ex parte order unless the victim 14 requests dismissal or fails to appear for the hearing thereon.

15        6. A final protective order shall be granted or denied within 16 six (6) months of service on the defendant unless all parties agree 17 that a temporary protective order remain in effect; provided, a 18 victim shall have the right to request a final protective order 19 hearing at any time after the passage of six (6) months.

20        C. 1. At the hearing, the court may impose any terms and 21 conditions in the protective order that the court reasonably 22 believes are necessary to bring about the cessation of domestic 23 abuse against the victim or stalking or harassment of the victim or 24 the immediate family of the victim but shall not impose any term and

1 condition that may compromise the safety of the victim including, 2 but not limited to, mediation, couples counseling, family
3 counseling, parenting classes or joint victim-offender counseling 4 sessions. The court may order the defendant to obtain domestic 5 abuse counseling or treatment in a program certified by the Attorney 6 General at the expense of the defendant pursuant to Section 644 of 7 Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

8 2. If the court grants a protective order and the defendant is 9 a minor child, the court shall order a preliminary inquiry in a 10 juvenile proceeding to determine whether further court action
11 pursuant to the Oklahoma Juvenile Code should be taken against a 12 juvenile defendant.

13 D. Final protective orders authorized by this section shall be 14 on a standard form developed by the Administrative Office of the 15 Courts.

16 E. 1. After notice and hearing, protective orders authorized 17 by this section may require the defendant to undergo treatment or 18 participate in the court-approved counseling services necessary to 19 bring about cessation of domestic abuse against the victim pursuant 20 to Section 644 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes but shall not 21 order any treatment or counseling that may compromise the safety of 22 the victim including, but not limited to, mediation, couples
23 counseling, family counseling, parenting classes or joint victim-24 offender counseling sessions.

1        2. The defendant may be required to pay all or any part of the 2 cost of such treatment or counseling services. The court shall not 3 be responsible for such cost.

4        3. Should the plaintiff choose to undergo treatment or 5 participate in court-approved counseling services for victims of 6 domestic abuse, the court may order the defendant to pay all or any 7 part of the cost of such treatment or counseling services if the 8 court determines that payment by the defendant is appropriate.

9        F. When necessary to protect the victim and when authorized by 10 the court, protective orders granted pursuant to the provisions of 11 this section may be served upon the defendant by a peace officer, 12 sheriff, constable, or policeman or other officer whose duty it is 13 to preserve the peace, as defined by Section 99 of Title 21 of the 14 Oklahoma Statutes.

15        G. 1. Any protective order issued on or after November 1, 16 2012, pursuant to subsection C of this section shall be:

- 17            a. for a fixed period not to exceed a period of five (5) 18                years unless extended, modified, vacated or rescinded 19                upon motion by either party or if the court approves 20                any consent agreement entered into by the plaintiff 21                and defendant; provided, if the defendant is 22                incarcerated, the protective order shall remain in 23                full force and effect during the period of 24                incarceration. The period of incarceration, in any jurisdiction, shall not be included in the calculation of the five-year time limitation, or

b. continuous upon a specific finding by the court of one of the following:

(1) the person has a history of violating the orders of any court or governmental entity,

(2) the person has previously been convicted of a violent felony offense,

(3) the person has a previous felony conviction for stalking as provided in Section 1173 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes, ~~or~~

(4) a court order for a final Victim Protection Order has previously been issued against the person in this state or another state, or

(5) the victim provides proof that a continuous protective order is necessary for his or her protection.

Further, the court may take into consideration whether the person has a history of domestic violence or a history of other violent acts. The protective order shall remain in effect until modified, vacated or rescinded upon motion by either party or if the court approves any consent agreement entered into by the plaintiff and defendant. If the defendant is incarcerated, the protective order

1 shall remain in full force and effect during the period of 2 incarceration.

3 2. The court shall notify the parties at the time of the 4 issuance of the protective order of the duration of the protective 5 order.

6 3. Upon the filing of a motion by either party to modify,
7 extend, or vacate a protective order, a hearing shall be scheduled 8 and notice given to the parties. At the hearing, the issuing court 9 may take such action as is necessary under the circumstances.

10 4. If a child has been removed from the residence of a parent 11 or custodial adult because of domestic abuse committed by the child, 12 the parent or custodial adult may refuse the return of such child to 13 the residence unless, upon further consideration by the court in a 14 juvenile proceeding, it is determined that the child is no longer a 15 threat and should be allowed to return to the residence.

16 H. 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly and 17 willfully seek a protective order against a spouse or ex-spouse 18 pursuant to the Protection from Domestic Abuse Act for purposes of 19 harassment, undue advantage, intimidation, or limitation of child 20 visitation rights in any divorce proceeding or separation action 21 without justifiable cause.

22 2. The violator shall, upon conviction thereof, be guilty of a 23 misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a 24

2 Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

3 3. A second or subsequent conviction under this subsection

5 Department of Corrections for a period not to exceed two (2) years, 6 or by a fine not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), or by 7 both such fine and imprisonment.

8 I. 1. A protective order issued under the Protection from 9 Domestic Abuse Act shall not in any manner affect title to real 10 property, purport to grant to the parties a divorce or otherwise 11 purport to determine the issues between the parties as to child 12 custody, visitation or visitation schedules, child support or 13 division of property or any other like relief obtainable pursuant to 14 Title 43 of the Oklahoma Statutes, except child visitation orders 15 may be temporarily suspended or modified to protect from threats of 16 abuse or physical violence by the defendant or a threat to violate a 17 custody order. Orders not affecting title may be entered for good 18 cause found to protect an animal owned by either of the parties or 19 any child living in the household.

20 2. When granting any protective order for the protection of a 21 minor child from violence or threats of abuse, the court shall allow 22 visitation only under conditions that provide adequate supervision 23 and protection to the child while maintaining the integrity of a 24 divorce decree or temporary order.

1 J. 1. In order to ensure that a petitioner can maintain an 2 existing wireless telephone number or household utility account, the 3 court, after providing notice and a hearing, may issue an order 4 directing a wireless service provider or public utility provider to 5 transfer the billing responsibility for and rights to the wireless 6 telephone number or numbers of any minor children in the care of the 7 petitioning party or household utility account to the petitioner if 8 the petitioner is not the wireless service or public utility account

12 account to the petitioner shall list the name and billing telephone

14 the person to whom the telephone number or numbers or household 15 utility account will be transferred and each telephone number or 16 household utility to be transferred to that person. The court shall 17 ensure that the contact information of the petitioner is not 18 provided to the account holder in proceedings held under this 19 subsection.

20 3. Upon issuance, a copy of the final order of protection shall 21 be transmitted, either electronically or by certified mail, to the 22 registered agent of the wireless service provider or public utility 23 provider listed with the Secretary of State or Corporation
24 Commission of Oklahoma or electronically to the email address

1 provided by the wireless service provider or public utility 2 provider. Such transmittal shall constitute adequate notice for the 3 wireless service provider or public utility provider.

4 4. If the wireless service provider or public utility provider 5 cannot operationally or technically effectuate the order due to 6 certain circumstances, the wireless service provider or public

14 5. Upon transfer of billing responsibility for and rights to a 15 wireless telephone number or numbers or household utility account to 16 the petitioner under the provisions of this subsection by a wireless 17 service provider or public utility provider, the petitioner shall 18 assume all financial responsibility for the transferred wireless 19 telephone number or numbers or household utility account, monthly 20 service and utility billing costs and costs for any mobile device 21 associated with the wireless telephone number or numbers. The 22 wireless service provider or public utility provider shall have the 23 right to pursue the original account holder for purposes of 24

1 collecting any past due amounts owed to the wireless service
2 provider or public utility provider.

3 6. The provisions of this subsection shall not preclude a 4 wireless service provider or public utility provider from applying 5 any routine and customary requirements for account establishment to 6 the petitioner as part of this transfer of billing responsibility 7 for a household utility account or for a wireless telephone number 8 or numbers and any mobile devices attached to that number including, 9 but not limited to, identification, financial information and 10 customer preferences.

11 7. The provisions of this subsection shall not affect the 12 ability of the court to apportion the assets and debts of the 13 parties as provided for in law or the ability to determine the 14 temporary use, possession and control of personal property.

15 8. No cause of action shall lie against any wireless service 16 provider or public utility provider, its officers, employees or 17 agents for actions taken in accordance with the terms of a court 18 order issued under the provisions of this subsection.

8 provided by a public utility provider.

9 K. 1. A court shall not issue any mutual protective orders.

10 2. If both parties allege domestic abuse by the other party, 11 the parties shall do so by separate petitions. The court shall 12 review each petition separately in an individual or a consolidated 13 hearing and grant or deny each petition on its individual merits.
14 If the court finds cause to grant both motions, the court shall do 15 so by separate orders and with specific findings justifying the 16 issuance of each order.

17 3. The court may only consolidate a hearing if:

9 person shall not make legal arguments; however, a victim support 10 person who is not a licensed attorney may offer the plaintiff or 11 victim comfort or support and may remain in close proximity to the 12 plaintiff or victim.
