1        13. Any vehicle, airplane, vessel, or parts of a vehicle whose 2 numbers have been removed, altered or obliterated so as to prevent

5 whose true ownership cannot be determined; and

6        14. Any real property used in any manner or part to commit any 7 violation of the provisions set forth in Section 1 of this act.

8        C. Property described in subsection A or B of this section may 9 be held as evidence until a forfeiture has been declared or a 10 release ordered. Forfeiture actions under this section may be 11 brought by the district attorney in the proper county of venue as 12 petitioner; provided, in the event the district attorney elects not 13 to file such action, or fails to file such action within ninety (90)
14 days of the date of the seizure of such equipment, the property
15 shall be returned to the owner.

16        D. Notice of seizure and intended forfeiture proceeding shall 17 be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court for the 18 county wherein such property is seized and shall be given all owners 19 and parties in interest.

20        E. Notice shall be given according to one of the following 21 methods:

22        1. Upon each owner or party in interest whose right, title, or 23 interest is of record in the Oklahoma Tax Commission or with the 24 county clerk for filings under the Uniform Commercial Code, served

1 in the manner of service of process in civil cases prescribed by 2 Section 2004 of Title 12 of the Oklahoma Statutes;

3 2. Upon each owner or party in interest whose name and address
4 is known, served in the manner of service of process in civil cases 5 prescribed by Section 2004 of Title 12 of the Oklahoma Statutes; or 6 3. Upon all other owners, whose addresses are unknown, but who 7 are believed to have an interest in the property by one publication 8 in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the 9 seizure was made.

10 F. Within sixty (60) days after the mailing or publication of 11 the notice, the owner of the property and any other party in 12 interest or claimant may file a verified answer and claim to the 13 property described in the notice of seizure and of the intended 14 forfeiture proceeding.

15 G. If at the end of sixty (60) days after the notice has been 16 mailed or published there is no verified answer on file, the court
17 shall hear evidence upon the fact of the unlawful use and may order 18 the property forfeited to the state, if such fact is proven.

19 H. If a verified answer is filed, the forfeiture proceeding
20 shall be set for hearing.

21 I. At the hearing the petitioner shall prove by clear and 22 convincing evidence that property was used in the attempt or 23 commission of an act specified in subsection A of this section or is 24

1 property described in subsection B of this section with knowledge by 2 the owner of the property.

3 J. The claimant of any right, title, or interest in the 4 property may prove the lien, mortgage, or conditional sales contract 5 to be bona fide and that the right, title, or interest created by 6 the document was created without any knowledge or reason to believe 7 that the property was being, or was to be, used for the purpose
8 charged.

9 K. In the event of such proof, the court may order the property
10 released to the bona fide or innocent owner, lien holder, mortgagee, 11 or vendor if the amount due such person is equal to, or in excess 12 of, the value of the property as of the date of the seizure, it 13 being the intention of this section to forfeit only the right,
14 title, or interest of the purchaser, except for items bearing a 15 counterfeit mark or used exclusively to manufacture a counterfeit 16 mark.

17 L. If the amount due to such person is less than the value of 18 the property, or if no bona fide claim is established, the property
19 may be forfeited to the state and may be sold pursuant to judgment
20 of the court, as on sale upon execution, and as provided in Section 21 2-508 of Title 63 of the Oklahoma Statutes, except as otherwise
22 provided for by law and for property bearing a counterfeit mark 23 which shall be destroyed.

24

1 M. Property taken or detained pursuant to this section shall 2 not be repleviable, but shall be deemed to be in the custody of the 3 petitioner or in the custody of the law enforcement agency as 4 provided in the Trademark Anti-Counterfeiting Act. Except for 5 property required to be destroyed pursuant to the Trademark Anti-6 Counterfeiting Act, the petitioner shall release said property to 7 the owner of the property if it is determined that the owner had no 8 knowledge of the illegal use of the property or if there is 9 insufficient evidence to sustain the burden of showing illegal use 10 of such property. If the owner of the property stipulates to the 11 forfeiture and waives the hearing, the petitioner may determine if 12 the value of the property is equal to or less than the outstanding 13 lien. If such lien exceeds the value of the property, the property 14 may be released to the lien holder. Property which has not been 15 released by the petitioner shall be subject to the orders and 16 decrees of the court or the official having jurisdiction thereof.

17 N. The petitioner, or the law enforcement agency holding 18 property pursuant to the Trademark Anti-Counterfeiting Act, shall 19 not be held civilly liable for having custody of the seized property 20 or proceeding with a forfeiture action as provided for in this 21 section.

22 O. Attorney fees shall not be assessed against the state or the 23 petitioner for any actions or proceeding pursuant to Section 1701 et 24 seq. of this title.

1 P. The proceeds of the sale of any property shall be 2 distributed as follows, in the order indicated:

3 1. To the bona fide or innocent purchaser, conditional sales 4 vendor, or mortgagee of the property, if any, up to the amount of 5 such person's interest in the property, when the court declaring the 6 forfeiture orders a distribution to such person;

7 2. To the payment of the actual reasonable expenses of 8 preserving the property;

9 3. To the victim of the crime to compensate said victim for any 10 loss incurred as a result of the act for which such property was 11 forfeited; and

12 4. The balance to a revolving fund in the office of the county 13 treasurer of the county wherein the property was seized, to be 14 distributed as follows: one-third (1/3) to the investigating law 15 enforcement agency; one-third (1/3) of said fund to be used and 16 maintained as a revolving fund by the district attorney to be used 17 to defray any lawful expenses of the office of the district 18 attorney; and one-third (1/3) to go to the jail maintenance fund, 19 with a yearly accounting to the board of county commissioners in 20 whose county the fund is established. If the petitioner is not the 21 district attorney, then the one-third (1/3) which would have been 22 designated to that office shall be distributed to the petitioner.
23 Monies distributed to the jail maintenance fund shall be used to pay 24 costs for the storage of such property if such property is ordered

1 released to a bona fide or innocent owner, lien holder, mortgagee,
2 or vendor and if such funds are available in said fund.

3 Q. If the court finds that the property was not used in the 4 attempt or commission of an act specified in subsection A of this 5 section and was not property subject to forfeiture pursuant to 6 subsection B of this section and is not property bearing a 7 counterfeit mark, the court shall order the property released to the 8 owner as the right, title, or interest appears on record in the Tax 9 Commission as of the seizure.

10 R. No vehicle, airplane, or vessel used by a person as a common 11 carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier shall be 12 forfeited pursuant to the provisions of this section unless it shall 13 be proven that the owner or other person in charge of such 14 conveyance was a consenting party or privy to the attempt or 15 commission of an act specified in subsection A or B of this section.
16 No property shall be forfeited pursuant to the provisions of this 17 section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner 18 thereof to have been committed or omitted without the knowledge or 19 consent of such owner, and by any person other than such owner while 20 such property was unlawfully in the possession of a person other 21 than the owner in violation of the criminal laws of the United 22 States or of any state.

23 S. Whenever any property is forfeited pursuant to this section, 24 the district court having jurisdiction of the proceeding may order that the forfeited property may be retained for its official use by the state, county, or municipal law enforcement agency which seized the property.

SECTION 3. It being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health or safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
