BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 68 O.S. 2011, Section 254, is amended to read as follows:

Section 254. A. Upon a hearing with notice the Oklahoma Tax Commission shall be entitled to proceed by garnishment to collect any delinquent tax and to collect any penalty or interest due and owing as a result of a tax delinquency. Provided, that upon proper application under the procedures outlined herein, the court may issue an order continuing the garnishment for the collection of 1 delinquent taxes, penalties or interest until the total amount of 2 such delinquent taxes, penalties or interest have been collected.

3 B. The Tax Commission may garnish the accrued earnings of a 4 delinquent taxpayer employee by sending notice to the taxpayer's 5 employer. For the purpose of this section, "earnings" means any 6 form of payment to an individual including, but not limited to, 7 salary, wages, commission or other compensation, but does not 8 include reimbursements for travel expenses for state employees.

9 Such notice may be served by mail or by delivery by a field agent of 10 the Tax Commission to the taxpayer's employer along with a copy to 11 the delinquent taxpayer. Upon receipt of such notice of 12 delinquency, the employer shall withhold from compensation due, or 13 to become due to the employee, the total amount shown by the notice.
14 The Tax Commission may direct the employer to withhold part of the 15 amount due, not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of earnings per 16 pay period, until the total amount as shown by the notice, plus 17 interest and penalty, has been withheld and remitted to the Tax 18 Commission. The employer's response and calculation of amounts 19 withheld shall be on a form prescribed by the Tax Commission.

20 C. Within seven (7) days after the end of each pay period, or 21 if the delinquent taxpayer does not have regular pay periods, within 22 thirty (30) days from the date of the notice, the employer shall 23 withhold amounts due or provide an explanation to the Tax Commission
24 why amounts due will not be withheld and remitted to the Tax

1 Commission. In any case in which the employee ceases to be employed 2 by the employer before the full amount set forth in the notice of 3 delinquency, plus delinquent penalty and interest, has been withheld
4 by the employer, the employer shall immediately notify the Tax 5 Commission in writing of the date the employee resigned or was 6 terminated. Any employer who knowingly and willfully refuses to 7 respond by any means to the notice as provided in subsection B of 8 this section may be liable for the total amount set forth in the 9 notice. An employer may not terminate a delinquent taxpayer 10 employee based upon the notice of administrative wage garnishment.

11 D. An administrative wage garnishment may be issued after 12 ninety (90) days in which the tax has become delinquent, notice has 13 been sent to the taxpayer of the delinquency and possible remedies 14 to resolve the delinquency have been provided to the taxpayer and a 15 tax warrant has been issued and filed pursuant to Section 231 of 16 this title. A taxpayer shall have ten (10) days after the issuance 17 of the notice to the employer to provide any additional information
18 to the Tax Commission for the garnishment of wages to be withdrawn 19 or released by the Tax Commission. The Tax Commission shall 20 withdraw or adjust the garnishment for wages upon proof to the 21 satisfaction of the Tax Commission that the delinquent tax, interest 22 and penalty referred to in the notice has been paid or the taxpayer 23 can show the wages subject to garnishment are exempt pursuant to 24 state or federal law.

E. The Tax Commission shall prescribe or approve forms and promulgate rules and regulations for implementing the provisions of this section.

SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2021.
