21 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

22 SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
23 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 11-103.12 of Title 70, unless 24 there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. Subject to the availability of funding and in addition to personal financial literacy education required by the Passport to Financial Literacy Act, Adulting 101 may be taught as an elective

1 course in the public schools of this state. Adulting 101 may
2 include, but is not limited to, the following areas of instruction:

- 3 1. Nutrition programs, including cooking;
- 4 2. Automobile maintenance;
- 5 3. Household repairs;
- 6 4. First aid;
- 7 5. Etiquette, social interaction and interpersonal skills;
- 8 6. Professional development, including applying and 9 interviewing for jobs, resume writing and college readiness;
- 10 7. Basic financial skills, including understanding credit
11 scores and the path to home ownership;
- 12 8. Career pathways, including college, trade schools,
13 vocational programs and licensing and certificate programs;
- 14 9. State and local government;
- 15 10. Self-discipline and time management; and
- 16 11. Basics of mental health, including stress-management
17 techniques.

18 B. School districts may provide instruction in Adulting 101 to 19 students during grades six through twelve. School districts may 20 determine when each area of instruction listed in subsection A of 21 this section may be presented to students. The school district may 22 partner with the career and technology education system to assist in 23 teaching Adulting 101.

C. The conditions of this statute can be accomplished through a Family and Consumer Science course at the school district. If a school district does not have a Family and Consumer Science course then it may be accomplished through other applicable courses. The instruction may be offered to students attending school in person, virtually or a hybrid of both. Specialized certification shall not be required for teachers who are providing Adulting 101 instruction.

D. Schools shall follow LEAD FCS Standards to implement the course.

SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2021.

Passed the House of Representatives the 10th day of March, 2021.
