1 ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 4371 By: Ford, Bush, and Fugate of 2 the House 3 and Weaver of the Senate 4 5 6 7 An Act relating to workers' compensation; amending 85A O.S. 2021, Section 47, which relates to beneficiaries in case of death; providing for 8 continuation of payments to certain surviving spouses 9 of public safety officers; and providing an effective date. 10 11 12 1.3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA: 14 SECTION 1. 85A O.S. 2021, Section 47, is AMENDATORY amended to read as follows: 15 16 Section 47. A. Time of death. If death does not result within 17 one (1) year from the date of the accident or within the first three 18 (3) years of the period for compensation payments fixed by the 19 compensation judgment, a rebuttable presumption shall arise that the 20 death did not result from the injury. 21 B. Common law spouse. A common law spouse shall not be 22 entitled to benefits under this section unless he or she obtains an 23 order from the Workers' Compensation Commission ruling that a common 24 law marriage existed between the decedent and the surviving spouse.

- The ruling by the Commission shall be exclusive in regard to benefits under this section regardless of any district court decision regarding the probate of the decedent's estate.
 - C. Beneficiaries Amounts. If an injury or occupational illness causes death, weekly income benefits shall be payable as follows:
 - 1. If there is a surviving spouse, a lump-sum payment of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) and seventy percent (70%) of the lesser of the deceased employee's average weekly wage and the state average weekly wage. In addition to the benefits theretofore paid or due, two (2) years' indemnity benefit in one lump sum shall be payable to a surviving spouse upon remarriage;
 - 2. If there is a surviving spouse and a child or children, a lump-sum payment of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) and fifteen percent (15%) of the lesser of the deceased employee's average weekly wage and the state average weekly wage to each child. If there are more than two children, each child shall receive a pro rata share of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) and thirty percent (30%) of the deceased employee's average weekly wage;
 - 3. If there is a child or children and no surviving spouse, a lump-sum payment of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) and fifty percent (50%) of the lesser of the deceased employee's average weekly wage and the state average weekly wage to each child. If there are more than two children, each child shall receive a pro

- rata share of one hundred percent (100%) of the lesser of the deceased employee's average weekly wage and the state average weekly wage. With respect to the lump-sum payment, if there are more than six children, each child shall receive a pro rata share of One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00);

 - 4. If there is no surviving spouse or children, each legal guardian, if financially dependent on the employee at the time of death, shall receive twenty-five percent (25%) of the lesser of the deceased employee's average weekly wage and the state average weekly wage until the earlier of death, becoming eligible for Social Security, obtaining full-time employment, or five (5) years from the date benefits under this section begin; and
 - 5. The employer shall pay the actual funeral expenses, not exceeding the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).
 - D. The weekly income benefits payable to the surviving spouse under this section shall continue while the surviving spouse remains unmarried. The weekly income benefits payable to the surviving spouse of a municipal police officer, a municipal firefighter, a county sheriff or deputy sheriff, a state trooper, or an emergency medical technician shall continue whether or not the surviving spouse remarries. In no event shall this spousal weekly income benefit be diminished by the award to other beneficiaries. The weekly income benefits payable to any child under this section shall

- terminate on the earlier of death, marriage, or reaching the age of eighteen (18). However, if the child turns eighteen (18) and is:
- 1. Enrolled as a full-time student in high school or is being schooled by other means pursuant to the Oklahoma Constitution;
- 2. Enrolled as a full-time student in any accredited institution of higher education or vocational or technology education; or
- 3. Physically or mentally incapable of self-support, then he or she may continue to receive weekly income benefits under this section until the earlier of reaching the age of twenty-three (23) or, with respect to paragraphs 1 and 2 of this subsection, no longer being enrolled as a student, and with respect to paragraph 3 of this subsection, becoming capable of self-support.
- E. If any member of the class of beneficiaries who receive a pro rata share of weekly income benefits becomes ineligible to continue to receive benefits, the remaining members of the class shall receive adjusted weekly income benefits equal to the new class size.
- F. To receive benefits under this section, a beneficiary or his or her guardian, if applicable, shall file a proof of loss form with the Commission. All questions of dependency shall be determined as of the time of the injury. The employer shall initiate payment of benefits within fifteen (15) days of the Commission's determination of the proper beneficiaries. The Commission shall appoint a
