7 to taxation under the Ad Valorem Tax Code, Section 2801 et seq. of 8 this title, to attend the treasurer's office and pay taxes, and if 9 any person neglects to attend and pay taxes until after they have 10 become delinquent, the treasurer shall collect the same in the 11 manner provided by law. If any person owing taxes, removes from one 12 county to another in this state, the county treasurer shall forward 13 the tax claim to the treasurer of the county to which the person has 14 removed, and the taxes shall be collected by the county treasurer of 15 the latter place as other taxes and returned to the proper county, 16 less legal charges. The county treasurer may visit, in person or by 20 B. The county treasurer of each county shall, within thirty 21 (30) days after the tax rolls have been completed and delivered to 22 the office of the county treasurer by the county assessor, mail to

6 of regular mailing, the treasurer may instead send the tax statement 7 to the taxpayer by electronic mail provided the taxpayer has 8 submitted a written request to receive such statements by electronic 9 mail instead of by regular mail. It is expressly provided, however, 10 that failure of any taxpayer to receive such statement, or failure

13 nor relieve the taxpayer or property owner of the duty and 14 responsibility of paying same as provided by law.

15 C. The statement required by this section shall contain an 16 explanation of how the ad valorem tax bill is calculated using 17 language so that a person of common understanding would know what is

20 school district or other jurisdiction levying ad valorem taxes and 21 shall identify the apportionment of the taxes for the current year 22 on the subject property. The State Auditor and Inspector shall 23 promulgate rules necessary to implement the provisions of this

8 of the public peace, health or safety, an emergency is hereby 9 declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and 10 be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
