STATE OF OKLAHOMA

2nd Session of the 58th Legislature (2022)

HOUSE BILL 3450 By: O'Donnell of the House

HOUSE BILL 3450 By: O'Donnell of the House

and

Daniels of the Senate

AS INTRODUCED

An Act relating to civil procedure; amending 12 O.S. 2021, Section 2015, which relates to amended pleadings; requiring certain procedure for amended pleadings; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 12 O.S. 2021, Section 2015, i amended to read as follows:

Section 2015. AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS

A. AMENDMENTS. A party may amend his or her pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, he or she may so amend it at any time within twenty (20) days after it is served. Amendments to add omitted counterclaims or to add or drop parties may be made as a matter of course within the

1 time specified above. Otherwise a party may amend the pleading only 2 by leave of court by submitting the proposed amendment with the 3 motion for leave of court or by written consent of the adverse
4 party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A
5 party shall respond to an amended pleading within the time remaining
6 for response to the original pleading or within twenty (20) days
7 after the service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be 8 longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

9 B. AMENDMENTS TO CONFORM TO THE EVIDENCE. When issues not 10 raised by the pleadings or by the pretrial conference order, where 11 the order has superseded the pleadings, are tried by express or 12 implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all
13 respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings or the pretrial 14 conference order. Such amendment as may be necessary to cause the 15 pleadings or the pretrial conference order to conform to the 16 evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any 17 party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does 18 not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is 19 objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the 20 issues made by the pleadings or the pretrial conference order, the 21 court may allow the pleadings or the pretrial conference order to be 22 amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits
23 of the action will be served thereby and the objecting party fails 24 to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence would

1 prejudice him or her in maintaining the action or defense upon the 2 merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting
3 party to meet such evidence.

4 Where the pretrial conference order has superseded the 5 pleadings, it is sufficient to amend the order and the pleadings
6 shall not be amended.

7 C. RELATION BACK OF AMENDMENTS. An amendment of a pleading
8 relates back to the date of the original pleading when:

9 1. Relation back is permitted by the law that provides the 10 statute of limitations applicable to the action; or

11 2. The claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose
12 out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or 13 attempted to be set forth in the original pleading; or

14 3. The amendment changes the party or the naming of the party
15 against whom a claim is asserted if paragraph 2 of this subsection
16 is satisfied and, within the period provided by subsection I of 17 Section 2004 of this title for service of the summons and petition,
18 the party to be brought in by amendment:

19 a. has received such notice of the institution of the 20 action that he or she will not be prejudiced in 21 maintaining a defense on the merits; and

22 b. knew or should have known that, but for a mistake
23 concerning the identity of the proper party, the 24 action would have been brought against him or her.

1 An amendment to add an omitted counterclaim does not relate back to 2 the date of the original answer.

3 The delivery or mailing of process to the Attorney General of 4 Oklahoma, or an agency or officer who would have been a proper
5 defendant if named, satisfies the requirements of subparagraphs a 6 and b of this paragraph with respect to the State of Oklahoma or any 7 agency or officer thereof to be brought into the action as a 8 defendant.

9 D. SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS. Upon motion of a party the court
10 may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit
11 the party to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth 12 transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the 13 date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. Permission may be 14 granted even though the original pleading is defective in its 15 statement of a claim for relief or defense. If the court deems it
16 advisable that the adverse party plead to the supplemental pleading, 17 it shall so order, specifying the time therefor. A supplemental 18 pleading relates back to the date of the original pleading if it 19 arises out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth in 20 the original pleading.

21 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2022.
