3   Supp. 2020, Section 5), is amended to read as follows:

6   Compensation Act shall be exclusive of all other rights and remedies
7   of the employee, his legal representative, dependents, next of kin,
8   or anyone else claiming rights to recovery on behalf of the employee 9   against the employer, or any principal, officer, director, employee, 10   stockholder, partner, or prime contractor of the employer on account
11   of injury, illness, or death. Negligent acts of a co-employee may 12   not be imputed to the employer. No role, capacity, or persona of 13   any employer, principal, officer, director, employee, or stockholder
14   other than that existing in the role of employer of the employee 15   shall be relevant for consideration for purposes of this act, and 16   the remedies and rights provided by this act shall be exclusive 17   regardless of the multiple roles, capacities, or personas the

2 account of the injury or death; or

3 2. The injury was caused by an intentional tort committed by 4 the employer. An intentional tort shall exist only when the 5 employee is injured as a result of willful, deliberate, specific 6 intent of the employer to cause such injury. ~~Allegations or proof~~
7 ~~that the employer had~~ The employer's knowledge that the injury was 8 substantially certain to result from the employer's conduct shall 9 not constitute an intentional tort for the purposes of application
10 of exclusive remedy under the Administrative Workers' Compensation 11 Act. ~~The employee shall plead facts that show it is at least as~~ 12 ~~likely as it is not that the employer acted with the purpose of~~ 13 ~~injuring the employee.~~ The issue of whether an act is an 14 intentional tort shall be a question of law.

15 C. The immunity from civil liability described in subsection A 16 of this section shall apply regardless of whether the injured
17 employee is denied compensation or deemed ineligible to receive 18 compensation under this act.

19 D. If an employer has failed to secure the payment of 20 compensation for his or her injured employee as provided for in this

5 principal employer to the immediate employer of the injured or 6 deceased worker.

7 F. The immunity created by the provisions of this section shall 8 not extend to action against another employer, or its employees, on

11 special master of a loaned servant where such special master neither 12 is the immediate employer of the injured or deceased worker nor 13 stands in the position of an intermediate or principal employer to 14 the immediate employer of the injured or deceased worker.

15 G. This section shall not be construed to abrogate the loaned 16 servant doctrine in any respect other than that described in 17 subsection F of this section. Nothing in this act shall be 18 construed to relieve the employer from any other penalty provided
19 for in this act for failure to secure the payment of compensation
20 under this act.

21 H. For the purpose of extending the immunity of this section, 22 any architect, professional engineer, or land surveyor shall be 23 deemed an intermediate or principal employer for services performed 24 at or on the site of a construction project, but this immunity shall

1 not extend to the negligent preparation of design plans and 2 specifications.

3 I. If the employer has failed to secure the payment of 4 compensation as provided in this act or in the case of an 5 intentional tort, the injured employee or his or her legal 6 representative may maintain an action either before the Commission
7 or in the district court, but not both.

8 SECTION 4. This act shall become effective November 1, 2021.
