Fiscal Analysis

The measure, as engrossed, would allow defendants to appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals the denial of a pretrial motion seeking immunity from prosecution pursuant to 21 O.S. § 1289.25. The measure would also allow the state or municipalities to appeal the finding that a defendant is immune from criminal prosecution.

Upon review, no direct fiscal impact to the state is anticipated from passage of the measure. Any additional duties the measure may create for the Court of Criminal Appeals are expected to be absorbed within existing budgetary resources.
