Research Analysis

HB 1753 removes reference to the Carl Albert Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services Center as the designated provider of a psychiatrist to the Department of Corrections.

Prepared By: Brad Wolgamott

Fiscal Analysis

HB 1753, as introduced, amends the requirement that the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services provide psychiatric care for the Department of Corrections. The DOC currently has psychiatric care services within the agency.

The measure has no fiscal or revenue considerations for the state.
