Research Analysis

The committee substitute for HB1792 to add that if a child found to be truant who has also been suspected of having a disability has been evaluated according to the evaluation procedures in IDEA to determine if the child is eligible for special education and related services. The CS also updates the effective date.

HB 1792 modifies terminology relating to disabled persons, changing mentions of “handicapped” to “disabled,” “a person with disability,” “visually impaired” or related language.
