Author:	Reps. McBride and Hasenbeck
Date:	2/5/2021
Impact:	No Impact

Research Analysis

HB1821, as introduced, removes the mandate that the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education award tuition aid grants. Further, the measure modifies the criteria the Regents may use to award grants. The Regents are authorized to consider a student's enrollment status, unmet financial need, nearness to completion, eligibility for other state and institutional financial aid, and state employment needs.
