Research Analysis

Senate Amendment to HB 2193 removes language broadening the applicability of the act, from applying only to municipalities with over 10,000 population and a budget in excess of $10M, to any candidate for municipal office or any elected municipal official who accepts or expends over $500.

HB 2193 clarifies the definition of municipal office within the Municipal Campaign Finance and Financial Disclosure Act to mean any elective office established under state or municipal law.
