Research Analysis

The Conference Committee Substitute 3 to HB 2322 broadens the definition of essential community provider and modifies other definitions. CCS3 updates statutory references of the Ensuring Access to Medicaid Act. The measure provides that a pharmacy or pharmacist will receive direct reimbursement from Oklahoma Health Care Authority when providing a healthcare service to a Medicaid member at a rate no less than that of other healthcare providers for providing the same service.

The provisions of this act will be contingent upon the enactment of Enrolled Senate Bill 1337 of the 2nd Session of the 58th Oklahoma Legislature and will not become law otherwise. The measure declares an emergency.
