Research Analysis

The Senate amendments to HB3039 requires a final order to be obtained before a well can be dug that falls within one mile of the certified boundary of an underground storage facility. However, if the underground storage operator does not object, the well can be drilled prior to receiving a final order from the Corporation Commission.

Otherwise, HB3039 creates a special permit to drill an oil or gas well prior to a final order being issued by the Corporation Commission.

Fiscal Analysis

According to the Oklahoma Corporation Commission, this measure creates additional responsibilities for technical staff that will likely require some additional funding to support. OCC does believe the increase will be minimal.

The Senate Amendments to this measure should not change the fiscal impact.
