Research Analysis

HB 3065 allows a commissioned employee of the Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics to purchase the rifle and/or shotgun issued to the commissioned employee immediately prior to retirement upon approval from the director.

Prepared By: Brad Wolgamott

Fiscal Analysis

The measure, as introduced, would allow retiring Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Control agents to purchase their service rifle and/or shotgun immediately prior to their retirement with approval from the Bureau Director.

Upon review and with consultation from the Bureau, no fiscal impact to state revenues or expenditures is anticipated from passage of the measure.
