Fiscal Analysis

The State Department of Health (OSDH) estimate of $1.66 million to replace 83 light emitting diode (LED) signs at an estimated to cost approximately $10,000 per sign. However, several county health department do not utilize LED signs.

Fiscal staff has adjusted the estimate made by OSDH by fifty percent (50%) as the true cost per site (83 total) is yet to be determine.

A revised fiscal analysis from OSDH is pending.
