Research Analysis

The committee substitute for HB3692 relates to public trusts. The measure:

- Modifies the competitive bidding requirement for construction and operational contracts;
- Allows public trusts to utilize sole source contracts and cooperative purchasing agreements for the purchase of equipment and labor;
- Requires a public trust to record findings of an emergency in its meeting minutes if an emergency contract is granted; and
- Allows reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement to be paid to any trustee that is not an elected official if the compensation is approved by the beneficiary of the public trust.
