Impact:	Please see previous summary of this measure

Research Analysis

Engrossed SB1344 clarifies that Court-Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) must complete education and training courses in accordance with national and Oklahoma CASA standards. Additionally, any person applying to be a CASA volunteer or to be employed by their local program must go through a child welfare records search which will consist of a search of the child abuse and neglect information system maintained by DHS. Last, the measure eliminates the requirement for the CASA Association to pay the fees for the criminal history records search.
