Research Analysis

SB 1725 provides a sunset date of December 31, 2022, for the Occupational Licensing Advisory Commission.

Prepared By: Emily McPherson

Fiscal Analysis

According to the Oklahoma Department of Labor, the agency may have to pick up some salary and benefits for their employees to finish out the year as their federal grants for the licensing commission ends before the end of the year, but the agency is able to absorb that costs. Therefore, there is no fiscal impact to the State.
