Research Analysis

SB211 allows the Oklahoma Board of Private Vocational Schools to:

- Accept and approve applications for sustained licenses;
- Conduct announced or unannounced site visits to an applicant or licensed school
- Invoice a travel fee to conduct site visits
- Collect data required to be reported to the U.S. Department of Education, any state or federal agency, or an accrediting organization;

The measure requires the Board to develop and present optional training for schools emphasizing continuing development of school personnel, and processes to address emerging issues.

Lastly the measure establishes new fees that the Board may charge private schools or applicants for site visits, certain reviews, and trainings.
