Research Analysis

Engrossed SB433 provides that an investigation shall include a process for notifying a community services provider of areas of concern and administration information. This shall not be considered final findings and shall not be included in a final investigative Department of Human Services report. The Department shall develop a procedure in which a community services provider may request an investigation status update within 10 day of investigation initiation. The measure also provides definitions of administrative information and area of concern and changes rules promulgation for a community services worker registry to the Director of the Department of Human Services.
