Research Analysis

FA1 to SB523 prohibits any agency, board, or commission or other entity of state government, or officer of this state, or state employee, or a county election board, from entering into a legal agreement, consent decree, or settlement of any kind which would alter or amend election procedures prescribed in statute. Any such agreement will be void and unenforceable. The Governor, nor any officer, court, or political subdivision of the state will amend or alter election procedures in state, except where specifically authorized in statute. Either chamber of the Legislature may intervene in any action, suit or proceeding that challenges or attempts to modify election procedures outlined in statute.
