Bill Analysis

HB 2296 re-creates the Red River Boundary Commission. The Commission is directed to confer and act in conjunction with representatives from Texas to evaluate the methods and other information used to establish the Texas boundary in the Texoma area as well as determine the location of the south bank of the Red River as located and marked by the US Army Corps of Engineers. Additionally, the Commission is charged with redrawing the boundary with Texas on any real property for which the Army Corps of Engineers was granted an easement for construction and operation of a water pipeline in the Texoma area. The commission is required to report findings and recommendations no later than January 15, 2022, and issue a final report no later than January 30, 2025.
