Bill Analysis

SB 1132 provides that a person may carry a concealed firearm to the Oklahoma State Fair and Tulsa State Fair. Firearms may be carried openly if authorized by the event owner. The measure also prohibits carrying a firearm to any public meeting conducted in accordance with the Oklahoma Open Meeting Act or any public facility that houses substance abuse or mental health facilities or persons who are under direct supervision of a public municipal abuse program unless authorized to do so by law. The measure also prohibits individuals from carrying a firearm into the State Capitol unless authorized by law. The USA National Softball Hall of Fame Stadium may prohibit concealed and unconcealed carry during the Women's College World Series. Any horse show held at the Jim Norick Arena may also prohibit concealed and unconcealed carry.
