Bill Analysis

SB 1293 directs the Department of Human Services to publish a report on its website as well provide said report to the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and Speaker of the House. The report shall provide information relating to payments made to providers in the prior fiscal year for home- and community-based services for people with intellectual disabilities and a strategic plan for serving more individuals with intellectual disabilities. The report shall be published annually by January 1 of each year. Additionally, the Department is directed to publish a monthly report on the fifth of each month containing information relating to the number of individuals with intellectual disabilities currently receiving home- and community-based services, services provided to such individuals, the number of such individuals that stopped receiving services, and the expenditures of home- and community-based services for individuals with intellectual disabilities by month and year.
