Bill Analysis

SB 1456 directs the Council on Law Enforcement Education Training to promulgate rules to evaluate and approve an application submitted by the Department of Corrections for a separate training academy. If the Department can demonstrate that it has met the criteria for a separate training academy, demonstrate it has sufficient resources to conduct the training, possesses appropriately trained and qualified staff, has a curriculum composed of comparable or higher quality course segments to the CLEET academy curriculum, and has adequate facilities, CLEET shall approve the separate academy.
