Bill Analysis

The CS for SB 1460 provides that the district court in and for the county of proper venue has exclusive jurisdiction to prove a will or to grant letters testamentary or of administration. Additionally, in all cases of administration of estates of deceased persons in this state where final decrees have been entered prior to the effective date of this act, and for which the final decrees are or may be defective or invalid for lack of jurisdiction because the administration was in a county other than the county of proper venue as prescribed by this section, such final decrees shall be deemed valid except in certain circumstances.
